Sliding Scale for In-Person Group Classes & Board & Train Programs

Loyal Guardians Service Dog Training | Covenant Keeper's K9 Training Facility

Overview

We are committed to making high-quality training accessible to individuals and families across all income levels. Training dogs—especially for specialized roles or behavior modification—should not be limited by financial barriers.

This sliding scale applies to our monthly board & train program ($2,000/month) and our group classes ($150 per class/session series) and is based on annual household income. All applicants must provide documentation of income to qualify.
