- Program supplies: Enrollment certificate, ID Badges, Embroidered Patch are property of LGSDT. If at any time you are not following program rules, regulations, or agreement, LGSDT and or LGSDT Volunteers have the right to remove these from you and you will be terminated from our program.
- Complete all testing before taking a LGSDT program dog out in public to businesses, or establishments. The program is set up to avoid conflict with the general public and local businesses by way of education and support.
- It is mandatory for Program members and Volunteers to educate business owners. If the handler is unable to do so, volunteers are usually more than willing to help with this step. We have a form to help educate business owners about service dogs, service dogs in training, A.D.A laws both including disability rights and business owners rights. When starting your training out in public this makes it easier. We found by working with business owners many of them are supportive of programs. We work to provide them with the knowledge they need prior to bringing service dogs to their establishment so that it will go smoothly. Prior to taking Program dogs In training to a business we must meet with the owner and ask if we are welcome to take your dog in after supplying them the information. They can sign an agreement form, If the business owner does not want us there we do not want to be there. We want to support businesses that support us.
- Volunteer Check In, If for any reason you refuse to meet with your volunteer, If your volunteer is not working out for any reason, You must contact LGSDT and let us know so that we can make a decision to either find you a new volunteer. if you are unwilling to work with any volunteer you will be terminated from our program. If you cannot meet with your volunteer you must reschedule with your volunteer.
- Monthly progress reports and updates must be turned in the last day of the month. Failure to do so could result in termination from this program
- There is 6 layers to the program. You must complete classes and pass an evaluation before you can move to the next level.
- There will be bi-monthly field trips (weekends designated to public transport
